

The Answers

The envelopes containing the answers to the Times-Dispatch "Logomachy" contest, when cut into strips one inch wide and joined end to end, if dropped from Ralph Johnstone's "Baby Grand" Wright Aeroplane at his Belmont Park world's record height of 9,714 feet, would reach the earth and trail nearly one half mile on the ground.

"LOGOMACHY"

(Patent Applied For)

The basket pictured above is twenty-four inches in diameter and thirty inches in height, and contains 217 of the answers to The Times-Dispatch "Logomachy" contest. The photograph was made yesterday morning, and therefore represents only a part of the grand total of over 3,000 letters received up to 6 o'clock last night.
